1. Arising you I am, as a prototype of what I will do with so many, so many that remove the scales from their eyes and open to Me, and open to those of Me who will help them see Me—clearer, clearly—right beside them, in front of them, and in all that they are doing, whether they embrace Me or ignore Me—I am there, there, there waiting, waiting, encouraging, making way for their eyes to open to Me, if they will, if they will.

2. My people come, My people come from the north, south, east and west Ted. They wait in line to come—quality, excellence, innovation, surrendered to Me—waiting to be exponentialized in the presence of other exponentialized so that exponentialized squared and cubed combine to produce synergy and power that comes only from Me.

3. Precious, precious in My sight, are My Mine, My body, those who will open to Me—and each other, in new paradigms of power. Come, come away with Me, My beloveds—beloveds all—and share and love each other with My love, selflessly, so selflessly, so motive-purely, so precious, so tenderly, so precious, so patiently, so tenderly, so tenderly, with smiles and affirmations many—candor direct—yet in such tenderness and skill.

4. Oh Ted, language the love of My people to each other and words invent to image Me on My hearts of stone, to turn them into hearts of tenderness and love, respecting all around them and all I have put them through, or allowed them to put themselves through, as they mold themselves for their work, and Me for My work, if they so chose, if they so choose.

5. Ted, a week can transform anyone, anyone from what and where they are, into My royalty, if they are open to Me, if they are seeking and will simply open to Me, My spirit, and receive My keys from brothers and sisters in love and respect, and river be of what keys I've given them.

6. Selfishness and self-protectiveness have no place in Me. I am the righteous judge and all vengeance is Mine. I protect, I promote and I avenge, in My timing and in My ways. I protect and I promote and I am protecting and promoting like never before, to those who will open to Me.

7. And those who won't open to Me—please love as much as those open to Me. Please love them and tender be with them, tender, tender, tender squared, tender and patient and kind and let Me continue to affirm them, and the fact that I am right there with them, and that they are using Me and what I gave them to do what they are doing, even when they hurt Me.

8. Be big, be bold and yet tender, radical yet meek, powerful yet humble, and receive My Mine that come to you as yours, for short seasons, so that you—in Me—can blast them into orbit with Me in My big world, in My design for them.

9. Patents come, protection comes for what I want protected.
10. Seed comes, for what I want seeded forth.
11. Procurement for Me—comes—in My ways of creativity.
12. Igniting the sources and resources of the spirit in My Mine I am.
13. Let them know. Let them all know.

14. School is in session, My school is now in session, and the school bell rings. My school bell rings—summoning My ready to come to My schools and prepare for synergy and key exchange and propulsion systems of Me—and freedom and intimacy and gifts released—thinking wrong demised—thinking right, right, righteously—given wings.

15. Oh ready are My Mine who have sought Me.
16. Selective be and process My words and instructions, and systematize into orders of Me My instructions clear.

17. Begin, now begin, set dates and curriculum pen. You have it, you have Me.

18. School the school-able who will schools start and smash principalities of not-Me burdening My set-free. Royalty-ize and imprint My values and consistent be.

19. They come, they call, they line up to be in My school, My school, My school of schools that now comes forth, from Me, through you, in power and might unseen, growing, foundationing themselves in Me, rooted and grounded in Me in levels deep, freedom personified, confidencing and significancing My people.

20. My body arises to receive Me from My arisen ones [graduates] who walk forth now in timidity-smashing radical meekness, and Ted, skill. Propelling them you are into My skill sets for Me, for Mine, for all.

21. Tulsa—begin where you are and flinging you I am in bursts of light and might and power I am—your obedience—your cost-paid—seeding it into lands far and many.

22. Opportunities come—stay focused.
23. My time tables keep.
24. Expand, grow, delineate, define, order, select, receive, teach, impart, ensure, release.
